

	K (Already Know) I know that: It is a common phenomenon that many people cannot find the direction of development and lack of sense of achievement and happiness. Many people get to work only to discover that this is not what they want. So, the book of heroine wants to do some change and she rely about what she done when she was 20.
W (Want to Learn) I want to learn: How to find a suitable part for self-development. We all eager for knowledge, wisdom, wealth. I want to learn the heroine will change his future and what she will pay. To achieve what she wants. What the travails look like? And what will happen in the story makes me feel cherish the present of time.	L (Newly Learned) Today, I learned that: The story makes me feel that major life transitions such as learning the protected environment of school or starting a new career can be charting. It's scary to face a wall of choices, knowing that no one is going to tell us whether we are making the right decision. The story is about Professor Tina's 17-year-old son is about to go to college, and she realized that she hasn't give him enough knowledge and skills to fit in and succeed in the world. She shares a lot to her son. So, planning life early can sure you have a steadier step.